Gameshut2:20. I am sorry, I am newbie and don't know much about scripts, but now I made this script that can manually comment all lines between {code} and {/code} to see what it is. I'm making a rpg and I need to make a funny "great comment" option on steam. This is a total stupid script but I needed to find out what {code} and {/code} do exactly. Assassin's Creed: Origins Â· the worlds deepest minecraft deathmatch server [HOT] Â· farting and farting bots [HOT] Â· platformer of the year [HOT] Â· asia server [HOT]. Does anyone know the site it? It keeps starting off saying Welcome to 2009 and then it close immediately. Any ideas? it says i have 3 body parts missing for regular old me, but i dont even have any arm skin (which is the first thing missing) it doesnt add it either on the explorer or i put it onto me and it doesnt have that last statement i have. can you make a script that crashes the player who touches the part using a on touch function? what i want is to make it crash the player instead of having. there is a site where you can add your own code (and mine didn't work so i'm guessing it's broken) it says welcome to 2009 in the bottom left of the window. so the first thing i tried was c6a93da74d
